Case No. 23-CV-818

MDL No. 3060

Judge Mary M. Rowland

CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER NO. 10 (Dismissals Without Prejudice)

I. Dismissal Without Prejudice for Newly Filed Cases

Notwithstanding the provisions of CMO 8, a plaintiff who files a Short Form Complaint (“SFC”) after the entry date of this CMO shall be permitted to dismiss his or her case without prejudice provided that a Notice of Dismissal Without Prejudice is filed more than twenty-one (21) days prior to the due date for his or her Plaintiff Fact Sheet as set forth in CMO 9. An agreed upon template Notice of Dismissal is attached as Exhibit A.

II. Dismissal Without Prejudice for Good Cause

For any plaintiff with a case currently filed in the MDL, or plaintiff otherwise not covered by Section I, requests for dismissal without prejudice for good cause shown shall be reasonably considered by Defendants and permitted only upon agreement of the parties to that SFC or upon Order of the Court.

III. Refiling of Cases Dismissed without Prejudice

Should any plaintiff whose case is dismissed without prejudice under this CMO wish to re-file their case in the future, such filing shall be made only in federal court and within this MDL, as long as there is jurisdiction to file in the MDL.¹ Nothing in this order shall impact the running of the statute of limitations as to any individual case.
