1 next case management conference on the status of this issue and the information they are 2 obtaining from DocuShare.

3 3. The parties have agreed to discuss a possible stipulation on successor
4 liability. The goal would be to eliminate or minimize the need for discovery on this issue.
5 The parties believe that 30 days will be required to address this issue thoroughly. As a 6 result, the parties should be prepared to discuss this issue at the next case management
7 conference held after the May 24 conference.

8 4. Defendants have raised proportionality concerns about the volume of 9 documents being returned by the parties' search terms. Id. at 7-10. Defendants have 10 produced some background information to Plaintiffs on this issue, and the parties have 11 agreed to confer about the scope and cost of discovery. The parties shall provide an update 12 on this issue, and set forth their respective positions, in the joint memorandum to be filed 13 on May 22, 2024.

14 5. Plaintiffs in the following five cases have not produced Plaintiff Profile
15 Forms (PPFs): Diana Wright, 2:24-cv-00438; Patricia Bennett, 2:24-cv-00660; Amber 16 Garza, 2:24-cv-00700; Janice Graham, 2:24-cv-00696; and Susan Palazzo (deceased), 17 2:24-cv-00701. Id. at 12-13. These cases will be excluded from the Initial Plaintiff Pool 18 to be used for selection of bellwether cases. The parties shall provide an update on the 19 status of these five cases at the May 24 conference.

20 6. Defendants assert that all medical records or documents required with PPFs
21 have not been produced by Plaintiffs in the following cases: Vera Hawkins, 2:23-cv-02020;
22 Rebecca Eckert, 2:24-cv-00139; Burgandy Shelby, 2:24-cv-00359; Latwon Whitby, 2:24-

24 2:24-cv-00292. Id. at 13-15. By May 23, 2024, Plaintiffs' counsel in these seven cases 25 shall either (a) produce the missing documents, (b) assert that document disclosures are 26 complete and explain why, or (c) include an explanation that the records have been 27 requested, when they were requested, and that they have not yet been produced.
