

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

IN RE: TEPEZZA MARKETING, SALES
PRACTICES, AND PRODUCTS LIABILITY
LITIGATION,

No. 23 C 3568
MDL No. 3079

Judge Thomas M. Durkin

CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER NO. 1

By order dated June 2, 2023, the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation (JPML) has transferred to this Court the civil actions listed in Schedule A, under MDL Case No. 3079. It is expected that additional cases will be transferred to this Court hereafter. It appears to the Court that these cases merit special attention as complex litigation. For these reasons, the Court enters the following order.

- 1. Applicability of order. Pending further order by this Court, this order shall govern the practice and procedure in the actions that the JPML has transferred and is transferring to this Court as part of MDL No. 3079. This Order also applies to all cases filed in the Northern District of Illinois that have been or will be reassigned to the undersigned judge as part of MDL No. 3079. The Order will also apply to any “tag-along” actions later filed in, removed to, or transferred to this Court.
- 2. Consolidation of actions. All actions that have been or are hereafter transferred to the undersigned judge as part of MDL No. 3079, whether originally filed in this district or elsewhere, are consolidated for pretrial purposes. Any actions later filed in, removed to, or transferred to this Court will be consolidated automatically with this action, without the need for a motion or entry of an order by the Court. This consolidation does not constitute a determination that the actions should be consolidated for trial, and it does not have the effect of making anyone or any entity a party to any action in which he, she, or it has not been named as a party.

- 3. Filing. The Clerk is maintaining a master case file under the heading “In re Re: Tepezza Marketing, Sales Practices, and Products Liability Litigation,” Case Number 1:23-cv-03568. All filings with the Clerk should be made under that caption and case number. When a party intends that something it is filing applies to all of the consolidated actions, the party should indicate that by using the words “This Document Relates to All Cases” in or just after the case caption. When a party intends that something it is filing applies only to some of the consolidated actions, the party making the filing should file it both under Case Number 1:23-cv-03568 and under the individual case number assigned to the particular case. The party making such a filing should indicate that by using the words “This Document Relates to [fill in case number]” in or just after the case caption.
- 4. Service List. This order is being served upon the counsel whose appearances are currently listed on the docket of Case Number 1:23-cv-03568 as of the date the order is docketed. Counsel who receive this order via notice of electronic filing are requested to forward a copy of the order to any other attorneys who have filed appearances in cases that have been or are being transferred to this Court.

5. Extension and stay.

- Responses to complaints. Any defendant that has not yet responded to a complaint in which it is named as a defendant is granted an extension of time for responding to the complaint until a date to be set later by this Court, a topic that the Court will address at the initial conference.
- Discovery. Pending the initial conference and until further order of this Court, all outstanding discovery is stayed, and no further discovery may be initiated. Relief from this stay may be granted for good cause shown, such as the ill health of a proposed deponent.
- Pending motions. All pending motions that predate transfer of any action are hereby terminated and must be refiled in this Court.

6. Initial conference. The Court sets the MDL proceeding and all transferred cases for an initial status hearing and scheduling conference, to be held on June 28, 2023 at 2:00 p.m. CST. The hearing will be conducted in person in Judge Durkin's courtroom, Room 1441, at 219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago Illinois. This appearance requires in-person attendance to be heard. Multiple attorneys from the same firm need not attend. For later status and scheduling conferences, the Court will (a) will work with counsel to arrange for attendance via WebEx for counsel who will wish to be heard; and (2) permit those who cannot attend in person to listen via teleconference.

- Other participants. Persons and entities who are not named as parties in this litigation but who may later be joined as parties, or who are parties in related litigation pending in other federal and state courts, are invited to attend the initial hearing in person or by counsel.

7. Purposes of initial hearing. The initial hearing set for June 28, 2023 will be held for the purposes specified in Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 16(a), 16(b), 16(c), and 26(f) and will be subject to the sanctions prescribed in Rule 16(f). The subjects to be addressed at the initial hearing include, but may not be limited to, the following:

- consideration of whether any complaint or complaints consolidating currently separate cases should or will be filed, and the timing for any such filings;
- consideration of a deadline for responses to the existing complaints or to any consolidated or amended complaints that are likely to be filed;
- entry of orders directing preservation of evidence and a protocol for discovery of electronically stored information (ESI);
- consideration of a process for appointment of, to the extent appropriate, of lead counsel and/or a steering committee for plaintiffs; and
- subject to time limitations, any other topics considered appropriate for discussion by any party. Any party that wishes to address a topic not on the Court's list must file, by no later than June 21, 2023, a “Request for Inclusion on June 28, 2023 Agenda” that describes the topic in reasonable detail.

- 8. Lead counsel, liaison counsel, and plaintiffs’ steering committee. One of the topics the Court intends to discuss at the June 28, 2023 hearing is a process for appointment of, to the extent appropriate, lead counsel and/or a steering committee for plaintiffs, as well as liaison counsel for plaintiffs and defendants. Any such counsel will have the responsibilities described in the Manual for Complex Litigation, Fourth Edition, § 10.22, subject to modification by the Court. The main criteria for such appointments will be: (a) willingness and availability to commit to a time-consuming project; (b) ability to work cooperatively with others; (c) professional experience in this type of litigation; (d) access to sufficient resources to advance the litigation in a timely manner; and (e) diversity. The Court will consider only attorneys who have filed an action that is part of this case.

The Court does not intend to select a leadership structure at the June 28, 2023 hearing but will do so promptly thereafter in order to avoid undue delay in the litigation.

- 9. Preservation of evidence. Pending entry of an order regarding preservation of evidence, all plaintiffs and all defendants shall take reasonable steps preserve all documents, data, ESI, and tangible things containing information potentially relevant to the subject matter of the litigation. All counsel are directed to make reasonable efforts to identify and notify parties and nonparties (including employees of corporate or institutional parties) of this directive.

Counsel are expected to familiarize themselves with the Manual for Complex Litigation, Fourth Edition, and are to be prepared to propose procedures that will facilitate the just, speedy, and inexpensive resolution of this litigation.

10. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 7.1 and Local Rule 3.2. All parties subject to the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 7.1 and/or Local Rule 3.2 are directed to make their disclosures required by those Rules in a form that complies with the requirements of Paragraph 3 of this order.

11. Orders entered by transferor courts. The Court hereby vacates all orders entered by transferor courts imposing deadlines for pleading, pretrial disclosures, or discovery.
